

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Stephanie Graves
AVP, Marketing
sgraves@mycvcu.org

COOSA VALLEY CREDIT UNION TO BUILD 2ND CARTERSVILLE LOCATION

ROME, GA (December 21, 2016) – Coosa Valley Credit Union has announced the decision to open a second office in Cartersville, GA in 2017. The second location will be off of Old Mill Road in Cartersville. This office will complement their existing location at 1149 N. Tennessee Street in Cartersville.

“Cartersville and Bartow County is an area that is currently experiencing a surge of growth, with development of new commercial, retail and residential opportunities,” said Andy F. Harris, President of Coosa Valley Credit Union. “We are excited to be a part of the growth in and around Cartersville, and proud to invest in this area, as well as the broader Bartow County region.”

Coosa Valley Credit Union plans to break ground on a new building to house the location sometime in spring of 2017.

Coosa Valley Credit Union is a not-for-profit, member-owned financial cooperative that serves consumers in the ten county Coosa Valley region. Founded in 1954 as the General Electric Employees of Rome Federal Credit Union, Coosa Valley Credit Union now provides superior financial services to families, individuals and businesses from all industries in Bartow, Catoosa, Chattooga, Dade, Floyd, Gordon, Haralson, Paulding, Polk, and Walker counties. Learn more about CVCU at www.mycvcu.org.

###