2018 American Flag Project

Coosa Valley Credit Union American Flag Project Returns June 4 through July 4

Through July 4, CVCU will once again be replacing torn or faded American flags in the communities we serve. This is the fifth year of this project, and to date, Coosa Valley has replaced over 150 torn or faded American Flags in our communities. We need your help to locate flags that need replacing. Be on the lookout for torn or faded American flags on display at businesses, Churches or community organizations in Floyd, Bartow, Catoosa or Polk counties. When you see one, contact us by email at flag@mycvcu.org, or on Facebook, and CVCU will replace that flag (up to a 6 foot by 10 foot size) absolutely free. We will also properly dispose of the old flags in conjunction with a local Veterans group.

New Branch Update

Construction continues on our new Cartersville branch, located off of Highway 113 on Walnut Grove Road. The branch is expected to open later in 2018.
