Forbes Names Coosa Valley Credit Union Best Credit Union in Georgia

Rome, Georgia, September 14, 2017 – Coosa Valley Credit Union (CVCU) took the top spot in Georgia on Forbes' inaugural "Best-in-State" credit union list. CVCU is one of only three credit unions in Georgia to be recognized by Forbes. CVCU was selected for the honor following a Forbes' survey of financial services consumers across the U.S., including those in CVCU's primary market areas. Survey participants were asked to evaluate credit unions based on the criteria of trustworthiness, digital services, financial advice, branch service and general satisfaction. In addition to being selected as the top credit union in Georgia, this honor also places CVCU amongst only 2.5% of credit unions nationwide who earned the recognition.

CVCU scored 88.07, followed by LGE Community Credit Union and Robins Financial Credit Union, which scored 85.97 and 85.95 respectively.

"CVCU is committed to improving the lives of our Members, our Employees, and the communities we serve. Being recognized nationally by Forbes is an honor; it is a direct result of the dedication of the entire CVCU team – from our Board of Directors to every employee – to living our purpose and values each and every day," states Andy F. Harris, CVCU's President and Chief Executive Officer.
